Due to the spread of COVID-19, in celebration of the 50th Anniversary of the Normalization of Diplomatic Relations between Japan and China, the contest was held online as a Japan-China cultural exchange event for the second time in the same manner as in March.

The contest received 179 applicants under the theme of “The 50th Anniversary of the Normalization of Diplomatic Relations between Japan and China and I,” among which 5 outstanding candidates selected by screening process delivered their speeches based on their own experiences and written compositions on the future relationship and exchange between Japan and China.
