

October 18, 2019
Shibuya Ikueikai Foundation

Attended the 20th China International Education Annual Meeting

On October 18, Shibuya Ikueikai, the National Interest Center in Beijing, China, will host Japan's 20th Annual China International Education Conference this year, which will be Japan's first guest country in Asia.

While there are about 3,000 representatives from around the world at the venue, Mr. Shigehiro Komaru is honored for his efforts in education exchange between Japan and China and for his achievements in helping school refusal students. Received He also spoke at the Japan-China Higher Education Forum held on the day.

The China International Education Conference is an international educational exchange event held annually by the China Association for International Exchange of Education since 2000, covering issues at various educational levels from primary and secondary education to higher education and vocational education. There are symposiums and study abroad fairs exhibited by universities from various countries.

(Right) President Shigehiro Komaru,
(left) Liu Limin, President of China Education International Exchange Association