Attended the “Fukuyama Express Komaru Bustling Pavilion” Delivery Ceremony

On October 31, 2019, we attended the “Fukuyama Express Komaru Lively Pavilion” delivery ceremony completed with the support of the Foundation and the support of Fukuyama Express.

At the delivery ceremony, Hiroshima University's President Mitsuo Ochi greets and then the Foundation's President, Shigehiro Komaru, says, "A place for good international exchange between students and international students, as well as a place to enhance the skills to flourish to the world. I hope we can be connected". In addition, President Komaru was awarded the President's Special Commendation, Academic Guest Diploma, and Certificate of Appreciation by President Ochi.

This pavilion is a free space where you can eat and drink, and it can be used for students, entrepreneurs, gatherings, and self-study and so on.
