

December 25, 2019
Shibuya Ikueikai Foundation

Special Sponsorship of the 6th Shanghai Japanese Composition Speech Contest

On December 21, 2019, we specially sponsored the 6th Shanghai Japanese Composition Speech Contest, co-hosted by Komaru Kotsu Foundation, Hiroshima University and Shanghai University of Foreign Studies.

The theme of this contest was “Transportation,” and 171 students from seven universities in the suburbs of Shanghai applied for the award, and six winners of the Excellence Awards selected from the competition entered the contest. The audience was about 200 people, including students learning Japanese and Japanese teachers.

At the beginning of the contest, Mr. Shigehiro Komaru, President of the Komaru Transportation Foundation, and Mr. Wenchu Sheng, Deputy Director of the Faculty of Japanese Culture and Economics, Shanghai University of Foreign Studies, gave opening remarks. Next, Mr. Tomoko Takaoka of the Consulate-General of Japan in Shanghai, who came as a guest, gave a greeting.

In the contest, six outstanding speakers gave their speeches and the first prize was go to Mrs. Shen of Huaiyin Normal School. Finally, Mr. Toshiyuki Sato, Vice President of Hiroshima University, gave a closing remarks.

(Commemorative photo of the 6th Shanghai Japanese Composition Speech Contest)