

December 13, 2019
Shibuya Ikueikai Foundation

Special Sponsorship of the 4th Jakarta Japanese Composition Speech Contest

On December 7, 2019, we co-sponsored the 4th Jakarta Japanese Composition Speech Contest co-hosted by the Komaru Kotsu Foundation and the PERSADA Joint Project Center of Hiroshima University.

This contest was entitled “Transportation” and 122 students from 10 universities leading Japanese language education in Indonesia have applied, and 10 winners of the Excellence Prize selected from among them have entered the contest. The audience was about 250 people, including students learning Japanese and Japanese teachers.

At the beginning of the contest, Mr. Shigehiro Komaru, President of the Komaru Transportation Foundation, Mr. Ismaji Hadismart, Vice Chairman of the Former Japanese Student Association of Indonesia (PERSADA), and Mr. Tori Marjoko, President of Darma Persada University, gave greetings. Next, Mr. Masafumi Ishii, Ambassador of Japan to the Embassy of Japan in Indonesia, who came as a guest, gave a greeting.

In the contest, 10 top performers gave speeches, and Rizuka Ramadani of the University of Darma Persada was selected for the top prize. Lastly, Prof. Yoshio Honda of Hiroshima University's Morito Institute of International Higher Education gave a closing remarks.

(Commemorative photo of the 4th Jakarta Japanese Composition Speech Contest)