

October 1, 2019
Shibuya Ikueikai Foundation

Special Sponsorship of the 4th Guiyang, China Japanese Speech Contest

On September 28, 2019, we specially sponsored the 4th Guiyang, China Japanese Speech Contest held at Guizhou University, co-hosted by Komaru Kotsu Foundation, Hiroshima University, the Consulate-General of Japan in Chongqing and Guizhou University.

In this contest, the theme was "Big Data and Transportation", and 59 students from 5 universities in Guizhou and surrounding areas applied, and 5 winners of excellence awards selected from among them entered the contest. . The audience attracted about 100 people, including students studying Japanese and Japanese teachers.

At the beginning of the contest, Mr. Shigehiro Komaru, President of Komaru Kotsu Foundation, and Mr. Wang Xiaomei, Director of Foreign Language Institute of Guizhou University, gave opening remarks. Next, Mr. Kenji Saito, Deputy Consul-General of the Consulate-General of Japan in Chongqing, gave a greeting as a guest.

At the contest, five of the top performers gave their speeches. The top prize was "Using big data to reduce traffic congestion and enable quick rescue operations in traffic accidents. I want to realize a bright future that has made progress" said Mr. Li Mu Lan of Guizhou National University of Technology. Lastly, Prof. Yoshio Honda of Morito International Higher Education Institute, Hiroshima University gave a closing remarks.

(Commemorative photo of the 4th Guiyang Japanese Speech Contest)